

Office of the State Inspector General Sexual Harassment Annual Report

Scott F. McAfee | INSPECTOR GENERAL

FY22

FY22 was the third full fiscal year of the Sexual Harassment Prevention Program.

Complaints Reported

106

Complaints were reported to OIG in FY22

27

Agencies reported a complaint in FY22

Sexual harassment complaints are reported to OIG via an online webform either by executive branch agency personnel who have received a report of sexual harassment or by an employee who has been subjected to sexual harassment but does not feel comfortable reporting to their agency.

OIG conducted 3 impartial investigations in FY22

OIG enrolled 70 new designees in training

Once an investigation has concluded, each agency reports their findings to OIG. A sustained finding means that the investigation revealed sufficient evidence to support the conclusion that the act(s) complained of occurred, that it was committed by the respondent, and that it constitutes a violation(s) of the Statewide Sexual Harassment Prevention Policy

↑ 53%

% of Closed Complaints with a Sustained Allegation
+8% from FY21

Relationship of Parties: Complainant vs. Respondent

